“I am a firm believer in the people. If given the truth they can be depended upon to meet any national crisis. The great point is to bring them the real facts.”

Abraham Lincoln

“When written in Chinese, the word “crisis” is composed of two characters. One represents danger and the other represents opportunity.”

John Fitzgerald Kennedy

“The crisis of today is the joke of tomorrow.”

Herbert George Wells

“When you face a crisis, you know who your true friends are.”

Magic Johnson

“In time of crisis, people want to know that you care, more than they care what you know.”

Will Rogers

“This is not a crisis, I told myself. You are alive.”

Veronica Roth

“In a time of crisis we all have the potential to morph up to a new level and do things we never thought possible.”

Stuart Wilde

“It is in time of crisis that good leaders emerge.”

Rudolph Giuliani

“It is in time of crisis that good leaders emerge.”

Rudolph Giuliani

“Thank Heaven! The crisis is past, and the lingering illness, is over at last, and the fever called “living” is conquered at last.”

Edgar Allan Poe

“Crisis is not a nine-to-five job. Crisis happens when you least expect it.”

Judy Smith

“I’ve got some bad news and I’ve got some good news. Nothing lasts forever.”

“Sometimes you need a little crisis to get your adrenaline flowing and help you realize your potential.”

Jeannette Walls

“In crisis management, be quick with the facts, slow with the blame.”

Leonard Saffir

“I finally figured out that not every crisis can be managed. As much as we want to keep ourselves safe, we can’t protect ourselves from everything. If we want to embrace life, we also have to embrace chaos.”

Susan Elizabeth Philips

“The crisis consists precisely in the fact that the old world is dying and the new cannot be born; in this interregnum a great variety of morbid symptoms appear.”

Antonio Gramsci

“In every crisis, doubt or confusion, take the higher path – the path of compassion, courage, understanding and love.”

Amit Ray

“Losing your head in a crisis is a good way to become the crisis.”

C. J. Redwine

“The most fortunate of us all in our journey through life frequently meet with calamities and misfortunes which greatly affect us. To fortify our minds against the attacks of these calamities and misfortunes should be one of the principal studies and endeavors of our lives.”

Thomas Jefferson

“Then the shit hits the fan.”

John Kenneth Galbraith

“In the midst of every crisis, lies great opportunity.”

Albert Einstein

“It is very rare or almost impossible that an event can be negative from all points of view.”

Dalai Lama

“Crisis doesn’t change people, it reveals them.”

Eric Walters
